Arrive Here on Monday.

Among the distinguished passengers Among the distinguished passengers aboard the Siberia due here Monday arrived here from San Francisco on morning from San Francisco will be Governor Leonardo Osorio of Cavite, special commissioner of the Philippine government to study harbor conditions in Europe and America. He is a polished Filipino, speaks very correct they cleaned out a Honolulu Portuguese voung man, who told another Hono-government to study harbor conditions in Europe and America. He is a polished Filipino, speaks very correct English, though a bit showy, and carefully picks all his words. He has looked over the harbor worke of Genoa, Marseilles, Barcelona, Naples and other Mediterranean ports, as well as a many ports on the Atlantic. He was deeply interested in the harbor of New York. The Philippine government is planning very extensive improvements to Manila harbor which will make it of the highest class in the world. He had a conference with President Taft at Beverly. Governor Osorio states in interviews that the Filipino people have demonstrated their capacity for self-government. He declares the Philipine sare practically free now, as conditions have greatly improved during the past ten years. He says the past ten years ago. On A ter getting the best of them I was invited to dinner to the other side of the Island, own my lost $4400, besides I wonded to the past ten years. He will be past ten years ago. He will be past ten years and constabilary organizations.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 6 .-Arrangements which had been pending E. M. BOYD IS for several days were concluded yes-terday for the chartering of the steam-er Wilhelminn of the Matson Naviga-tion Company by Aloha Temple of the Mystic Shrine, Honolalu, for the pur-pose of carrying Imperial Potentate Fred A. Hines of Los Angeles, together with the officers of the Imperial Coun-ell, their wives and families, to the their wives and families, to the Hawaiian Islands next February.

The pilgrimage to Hawaii has been ordered by the imperial potentate mainly owing to the efforts which have been put forward by Noble James S. Mc-Caudless of Honolulu, who has been working on the proposition for some

"We are assured of having from 150 to 175 people on the trip to Hawail," said McCandless yesterday. "As at present planned, we shall leave here by the steamer Wilhelmina on February 15, and the return trip will be timed to arrive in San Francisco on March 7. This will give the visitors ample opportunity for seeing the great floral parade in Honoiulu on February 22, a parade which we think can discount anything of the sort presented in any part of the world.

"The ceremonial session of the Shrine in the crater of Kilauca on the Island of Hawaii will assuredly be carried out. A great many people, I under-stand, think that this has been put forward as a joke, but it is nothing of the kind. We shall have a session there in the very presence of living fire, and I feel sure that the affair will live long in the history of the Mystic Shrine.

Other entertainment? Well, we will have a 'luau,' of course, and possibly some of the members may have a chance to see some of the native dances, which are particularly attractive.

E. M. Boyd, now of Yucaipa City, California, formerly of Honolulu, has launched the Yucaipa Record, to which the Redland Facts pays the following "The long cherished desire of E. M.

Boyd, postmaster and all-round boomer of and for Yucaipa City and Valley, is realized in the publication of the first issue of The Yucaipa Record, designed to be a 4-page 5-column weekly newspaper of the Valley, for the present, and to be ultimately merged into a daily paper. Number one of volume one of this bright little country paper bears date of September 3, 1910, and has a breeziness and freshness about it which will make it a welcome visitor to the home and offices of the people, aside from the fact that it proposes to convey interesting reading in the way of news about the promising Valley now coming so prominently to the front in southern California, "Editor General Merchant - Farmer-

Postmaster Boyd is not only a hustler, but is also well versed in the ways of newspaperdom, having had years of association with the business and the men engaged in newspaper making, and having a natural aptitude for expressng his thoughts in picturesque and readable manner. It is to be hoped that the venture will result in a more general cultivation of the wide acres of the Valley and an increased field for newspaperdom therein."

Wherein Are Claims Untrue?-Turrill Develops as an Able Orator.

(From Summay's Advertiser.) Some two thousand or more men and women, not to mention the children, who had to be taken along because it was Saturday evening and the nurse girls had a night off, spread themselves on seats and grass in front of the handstand at Aala Park last evening to listen to the announcements of Demoerats who wanted the public to understand that they were in the running for office next November.

It was an enthusiastic crowd, all right-a typical Hosolulu political audience, out for the fun of the occasion

Fred Turrill, for example, who is run-ning for the house of representatives, informing the universe, as represented by the aforesaid two thousand or more, started his sp. with "Wela ka hae." That took, for Turrill's voice was in good trim, and he said it as if he meant it. Then he sailed in and told the populace how the three Hawaiian politi-cal parties were like unto three trees. When he arrived here the Home Rulers got together under a keawe tree, full rain and he saved. There was hope for the vilest sinner to repent and become a Democrat.
